Biography:

Mart Eerens is a multi-instrumentalist from the Netherlands who embodies the rebellious essence of rock 'n roll. With a deep respect for the genre's legends, he blends classic influences with his own distinct, energetic sound. Mart is known for his electrifying live shows, captivating audiences with his passion and intensity on stage.

As a proud pansexual artist, Mart champions queer rights and inclusivity by embedding these values and advocacy into his music.

His lyrics challenge authority and promote unity, freedom, and the celebration of individuality. In an era where authenticity is rare, Mart stands as a true rock icon—a bold voice for those who defy society's boundaries.
